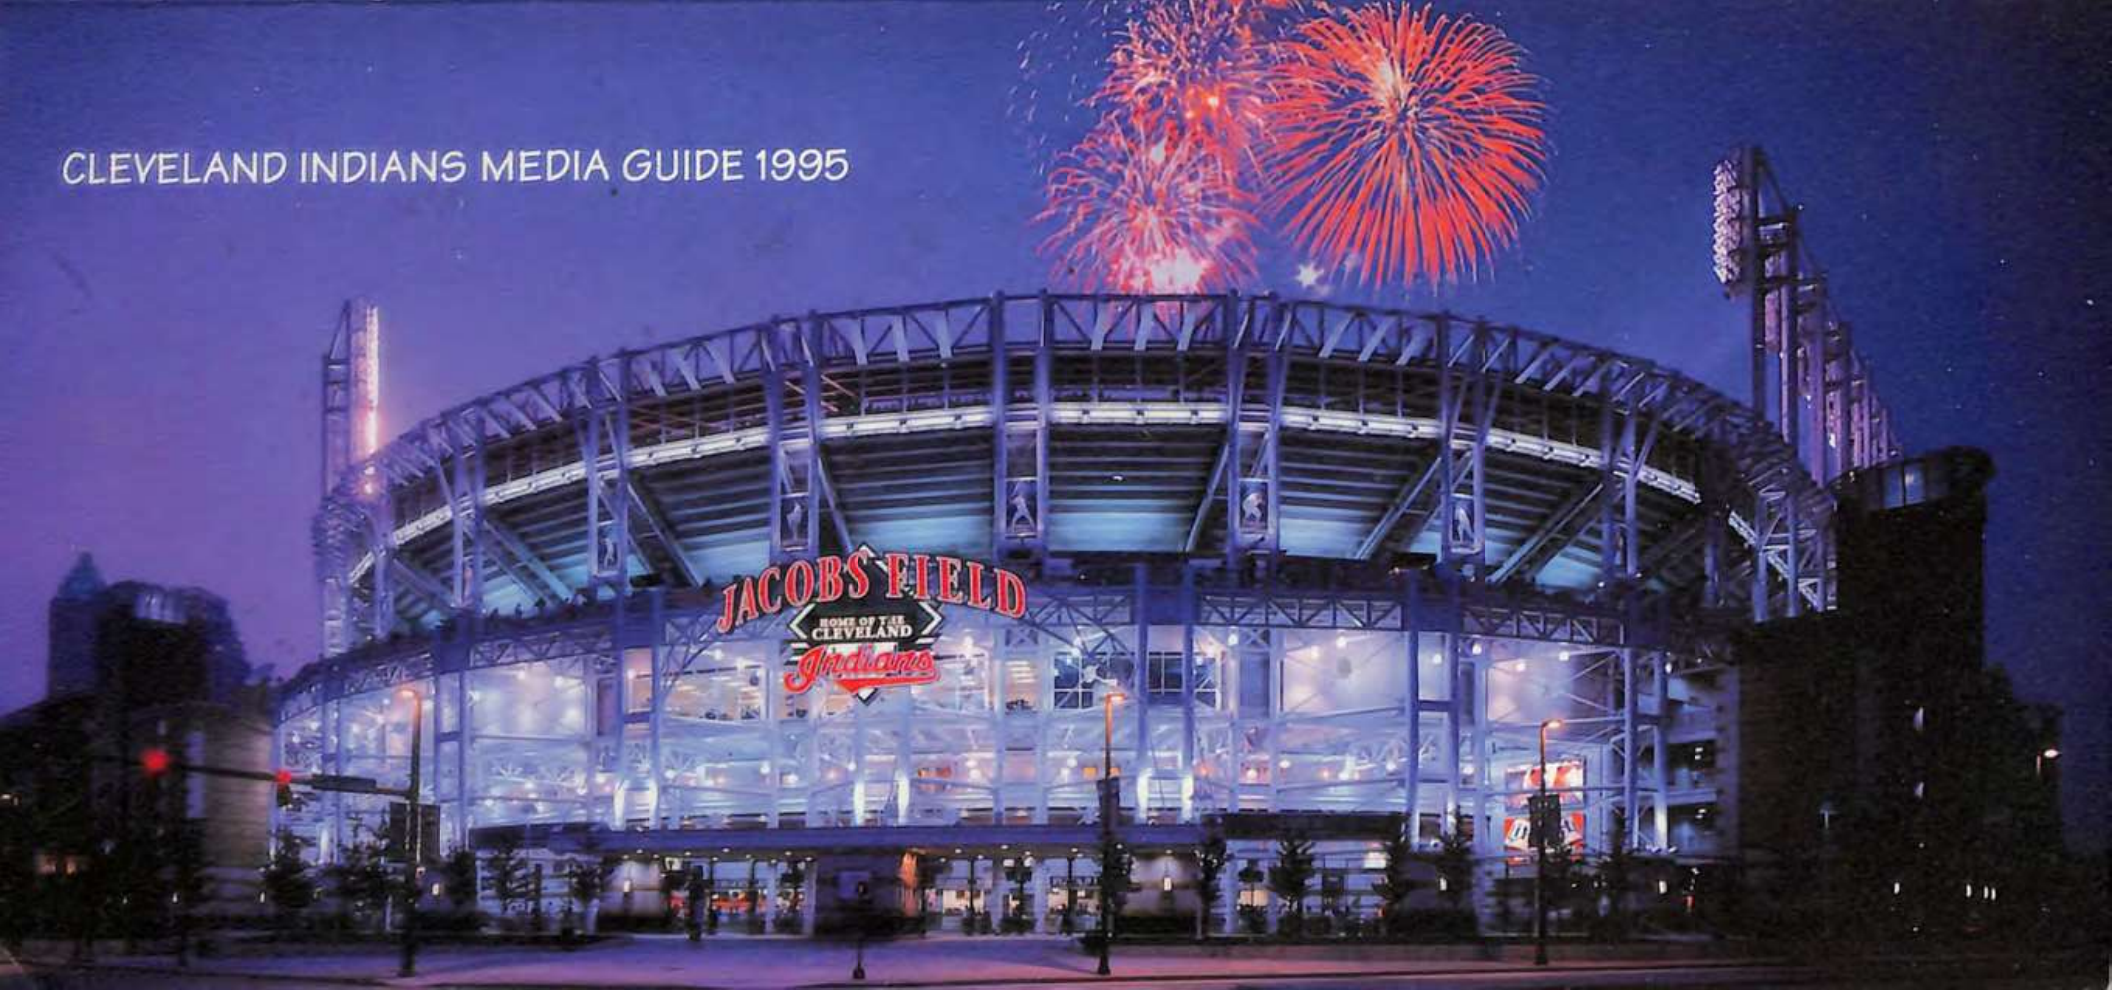
CLEVELAND INDIANS MEDIA GUIDE 1995



"The modern day Cleveland is the essence of baseball in America, the greatest example of what a gem can do for a city... Like so many classic parks of the past, Jacobs Field is built within the confines of the city... They built the future, ditched the past and created one hell of a present."

— Bruce Jenkins, San Francisco Chronicle

"Jacobs Field is an architectural and urban design home run. It fits so deftly into its downtown site that it almost seems to have been there from the beginning of time."

— Blair Kamin, Chicago Tribune

"Jacobs Field is a shining symbol for a revitalized downtown Cleveland... It is also the symbol of a revitalized franchise."

— T.R. Sullivan,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram

"It seems to be a case of love at first sight... A mix of exposed steel and brick, Jacobs Field echos the city. It is at once industrial strength and friendly."

— Jim Memmott,
Rochester Democrat and Chronicle

"It's everything a Major League baseball field should be—convenient, cozy, real-green and interestingly lopsided."

— Fred Klein, The Wall Street Journal

"The park, the team and the city have created a synergistic explosion of goodwill."

— Tom Verducci, Sports Illustrated

"Jacobs Field might be the best place to watch a baseball game on the continent."

— Scott Huler, The News and Observer

BEHIND THE SCENES

JIM WARFIELD, regarded as one of the top trainers in Major League Baseball, is in his 25th season as the Tribe's head trainer.

Warfield began his training career during his high school and college years, spending summers as an assistant in training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League. He was briefly a member of the training staff at Franklin and Marshall College following his graduation from Indiana University in 1966.

His association with the Cleveland Indians organization began in 1969 when he was the trainer for the Tribe's AA affiliate Waterbury. He moved on to AA Savannah for one year (1970) before becoming the major league trainer in 1971. Well-respected among his peers, Warfield was honored as the trainer for the 1981 American League All-Star team, and along with partner Paul Spicuzza, was honored as the '92 Baseball Trainers of the Year by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

Jim, his wife Linda and son Jordan reside in Hudson, Ohio.

Assistant Trainer PAUL SPICUZZA begins his 13th season with the Tribe. The 42-year-old Spicuzza started his career with the Indians AA farm team in San Antonio in 1975, and was the AA trainer at Williamsport in 1976. He was also head trainer for Mayaguez in the Puerto Rican winter league in both '75 and '76. In 1992, Paul and Jim Warfield were honored as the Baseball Trainers of the Year by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. In 1994, the recognition continued as Paul represented the Indians as a trainer for the All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

Paul joined the Cleveland Cavaliers of the National Basketball Association as the head trainer in 1980, and remained in that capacity until 1982. During that time, Paul was the trainer for the East squad in the 1981 NBA All-Star Game.

Spicuzza is a native Clevelander, having graduated from St. Joseph High School in 1970 and John Carroll University in 1974. Paul referees high school and college basketball games during the off-season.

Paul, his wife Beth and their son PJ, reside in Mentor, Ohio.

This is his second season as skipper of the Tribe's AAA affiliate after spending the 1992 & 1993 seasons guiding the Double A Canton-Akron Indians of the Eastern League. Last season Brian led the Charlotte Knights to a second place finish in the International League's West Division with a 77-65 record. The Knights eventually fell to the first place Richmond Braves in the first round of the playoffs in 4 games. He will manage the Tribe's new AAA affiliate in Buffalo in 1995.

Graham, 34, began his coaching career in 1987 under Indians skipper Mike Hargrove at Class A Kinston. In 1989 he made his managerial debut with Watertown of the New York-Penn League. Brian spent 1990 and '91 managing the Kinston Indians, leading them to the Carolina League championship in 1991. Overall, his career record as a manager is 456-312 (.594) in 6 seasons.

In his first 4 years of managing, Graham's teams established their present franchise records for victories in a season: 1989 Watertown (47-30), 1990 Kinston (88-47), 1991 Kinston (89-49), and 1992 Canton-Akron (80-58).

Brian was a 4th round selection of the Oakland Athletics in 1982. He played in the A's system for four years before moving on to the Milwaukee and Detroit farm systems. In 1986, he was picked up by the Tribe and assigned to AA Waterbury. A second baseman, he played his college ball at UCLA where he led the club in hitting in 1979, '80, and '82. He holds Bruins' career records for RS and SB and graduated with a degree in Behavioral Sciences.

1994 TRIBE FACTS

- The Indians finished the strike shortened 1994 season in second place in the newly formed American League Central division, 1 game behind the Chicago White Sox... Had there been post-season play, the Tribe would have qualified as the American League wild card team and been in the post-season for the first time since 1954.
- The Indians opened Jacobs Field by compiling a 66-47 record... Their second place finish was the highest since 1959 and their .595 winning percentage was the highest since 1955... It was the fastest the Indians reached 66 wins since 1959 when they had an identical record after 113 games.
- The Indians inaugural season at Jacobs Field resulted in the best home record in baseball at 35-16... The Indians put together a franchise record 18-game home winning streak, May 13-June 25... It was the longest home winning streak in baseball since 1988 when Boston set the ML mark with 24 straight home wins.
- The Indians were in first place at the All-Star break for the first time since '59 and were in first place as late as July 29 in the season that ended on August 11... The Indians spent 63 days in first place this season, the most time they were in the penthouse since '59 when they were on top for 91 days.
- The Indians finished with a .290 team batting average, percentage points behind New York for the league's best... It marked their highest team batting average since 1936 when they batted .304 as a team... The Indians also led the AL with 679 runs, the first time they led the loop since '86... Cleveland led the American League with 167 home runs, their most since 1987 when they set the team record with 187 round trippers.
- The Indians and Chicago White Sox were the only pitching staffs in the big leagues to have four pitchers with 10 or more wins... The Indians had Mark Clark (11), Dennis Martinez (11), Charles Nagy (10) and Jack Morris (10)... The Tribe led the Major Leagues with 17 complete games and allowed just 94 HR, the fewest yielded in the majors.
- During the '94 season, veteran Jack Morris recorded his 250th career win and Eddie Murray clubbed his 450th career home run... That feat made the Indians the first team to boast both a 250 game winner and 450 HR slugger since 1986 when two teams were able to make that claim: the '86 Phillies (Steve Carlton and Mike Schmidt) and the '86 Angels (Don Sutton and Reggie Jackson).

HISTORY OF THE CLEVELAND INDIANS

Professional baseball in Cleveland is one of the city's oldest traditions.

When fans think of professional baseball in Cleveland most think of the current Cleveland Indians as being one of four charter members of the American League (along with Boston, Chicago and Detroit).

However, the city of Cleveland has played host to every professional major league in the history of the game since the Cleveland Forest City's began this tradition on June 2, 1869 vs. the Cincinnati Red Stockings.

Cleveland fielded a National Association team in 1871 and 1872; a National League team from 1879 to 1884 and an American Association club in 1888 and 1889. In addition, Cleveland played host to teams in the Player's League, Federal League and Negro League.

In 1895 the Cleveland Spiders of the N.L. were winners of the Temple Cup Championship series against Baltimore (the Spiders lost the championship series to Baltimore the following season). The Cleveland Buckeyes of the Negro League were crowned champions in 1945. The 1920 & 1948 Indians own World Series titles.

Many great ballplayers have graced the diamonds in Cleveland, and it is through the fortunes of those men in uniform that we learn of the history of the Cleveland Indians.

The first era of Cleveland's American League team is defined by the presence of NAPOLEON LAJOIE. Charles Somers, first owner of the new franchise, and a major financial backer for the entire junior circuit, acquired the Frenchman from Connie Mack's Philadelphia club. Lajoie had jumped from the N.L. to Mack's club, only to be legally restrained from playing in Philadelphia. Mack repaid Somers' financial support by trading Lajoie to Cleveland. Initially known as the Blues (1901) and Broncos (1902), Cleveland's nickname became Naps, in honor of Lajoie, in 1903. During Lajoie's years with Cleveland, the club peaked in 1908 in a down-to-the-wire pennant race with Chicago and Detroit. The key players included third baseman BILL BRADLEY, first baseman GEORGE STOVALL, shortstop TERRY TURNER, outfielder ELMER FLICK, and 24-game winner ADDIE JOSS. Despite perhaps the greatest game ever pitched, Joss' 1-0 perfect game victory against Chicago's Ed Walsh on October 2, the Naps finished second.

Relinquishing managerial chores in 1909, Lajoie reversed a declining batting average and engaged Ty Cobb in a memorable batting race in 1910. Baseball historians still argue whether Cobb or Lajoie deserves designation as 1910 A.L. batting champ. Key arrivals and depatures occured in 1910-1911. JOE JACKSON arrived in 1910 courtesy of Mack and soon supplanted Lajoie as the greatest batsman in club history. Tragedy struck in 1911 when Joss was stricken with spinal meningitis and died on April 11 at age 31. CY YOUNG, who rose to fame with the N.L. Spiders from 1890 to 1898, returned to Cleveland in 1909 and bid farewell again in 1911. By 1913, Jackson, Lajoie, shortstop RAY CHAPMAN, catcher STEVE O'NEILL and pitchers CY FALKENBERG and VEAN GREGG were the nucleus of a rising franchise, but the upstart Federal League raided the A.L. and N.L. and the team. The 1914 team lost a club record 102 games and drew just 185,997 paying customers. Lajoie was released. Jackson was traded for three players and much needed cash.

A new name, new owner and new star ushered in the next era of Cleveland baseball. Lajoie's depature mandated a new team nickname. In fan balloting through a local newspaper, Indians was chosen to honor former Spider LOUIS SOCKALEXIS, the first well known Native American professional baseball player. Another baseball immortal, TRIS SPEAKER arrived in Cleveland in 1916, traded from the Red Sox after a contract dispute. Jim Dunn helped finance the Speaker deal and soon became the club owner. Speaker led the newly named Indians to greater glory. After strong contention in 1918 and 1919, the Indians finally brought an A.L. pennant to Cleveland in 1920, despite the tragic death of the popular Ray Chapman following his beaning by Carl Mays on August 16 at the Polo Grounds in New York. The '20 Indians led the A.L. in runs scored, doubles, triples, RBIs, walks and batting (.303). Speaker, outfielder ELMER SMITH and third baseman LARRY GARDNER each drove in over 100 runs. JIM BAGBY led the A.L. in wins (a club record 31), winning percentage, games, starts, CGs and IP. STAN COVELESKI became the first of many Tribe pitchers to lead the A.L. in strikeouts. Coveleski won 24 games, plus three more in the World Series, and former Yankees ace RAY CALDWELL added 20 victories. Rookie JOE SEWELL ultimately replaced Chapman and began a Hall of Fame career. Late season call-up DUSTER MAILS was a perfect 7-0 and helped hold off the Yankees and White Sox. Cleveland's five games to two World Series win against Brooklyn was puncuated by Elmer Smith's grand slam, the first grand slam in W.S. history, Jim Bagby's home run, and second baseman BILL WAMBSGANSS' famous unassisted triple play, all in the fifth game, October 10, 1920 at League Park. The Tribe was a solid contender in 1921 and 1926 led by Speaker, Sewell and pitcher GEORGE UHLE.

The two decades immediately following Speaker's departure brought great stars and memorable moments. This period saw the arrival of EARL AVERILL, MEL HARDER, BOB FELLER and LOU BOUDREAU (the only four Indians to have their numbers retired), a new stadium and new ownership. A syndicate led by John Sherwin and Alva Bradley purchased the club from Jim Dunn's estate on November 17, 1927. After playing all home games in League Park, located at the corner of East 66th street and Lexington avenue, the Indians played their first home game at mammoth Cleveland Municipal Stadium on July 31, 1932 as Philadelphia's Lefty Grove edged Harder 1-0 before more than 80,000 fans. The Indians played home games exclusively at the lakefront stadium for the remainder of 1932 and all of 1933. High costs and the size of the stadium drove the club back to League Park for all but Sunday and holiday games in 1934. Cleveland's first home night games, all at the stadium began on June 27, 1939 with Feller's one-hitter against the Tigers. Highlights of the Bradley ownership period included WES FERRELL's four straight 20-win seasons, LEW FONSECA's 1929 batting title, hitting heroics of HAL TROSKY and Cleveland sandlot star turned pro JOE VOSMIK, tempermental JOHNNY ALLEN's 15-game winning streak in 1937 and the infamous shirtsleeve incident of June 7, 1938. Allen was ordered from the pitching mound by umpire Bill McGowan for wearing a tattered uniform sleeve on his pitching arm. Allen was fined $250, but Bradley pacified the pitcher by purchasing the uniform for display at Higbee's department store. From there, the uniform went to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown. OSSIE VITT, fresh from a 109 win season as manager of the International League Newark Bears in 1937, became Tribe skipper in 1938. By 1940, a veteran Cleveland team bolstered by rookies Boudreau and RAY MACK offered legitimate pennant hopes. Vitt's team became known as the Crybabies when a contingent of players asked Bradley to remove the tempermental skipper. Thwarted by a late season hitting slump, the Indians finished a game behind the Tigers.

From his arrival in Cleveland in 1936 to his enlistment in the U.S. Navy in 1941, BOB FELLER was the focus of Cleveland's baseball attention. Signed by superscout Cy Slapnicka, Feller became the youngest player ever in Tribe history. Among his 14 regular-season appearances in 1936 was a 15-strikeout effort against the St. Louis Browns and a then major league record-tying 17 against the A's. Bob won 107 games games during his first six seasons, led the A.L. in strikeouts eight times, had an 18-strikeout game against Detroit on October 2, 1938, and pitched an Opening Day no-hitter at Chicago in 1940. His departure for military service came just as Boudreau was becoming player-manager at the tender age of 24. Boudreau won a batting title in 1944 (he also led all major leaguers with 1,578 hits during the 1940s), but the Indians were out of the running throughout the war years. Feller returned to a hero's welcome in 1945 and returned to the forefront of A.L. pitchers in 1946 with 26 wins and a club record 348 strikeouts.

The most colorful, successful period in Indians history began on June 21, 1946 when Bill Veeck purchased the team. He moved the club back to the lakefront stadium on a full-time basis in 1947 and his innovative promotions helped spark record attendance. His solid baseball judgement built a pennant contender. Gambles such as signing LARRY DOBY, the A.L.'s first black player, in 1947 and venerable SATCHEL PAIGE in 1948 paid off handsomely. Keeping Boudreau, player-manager since 1942, rather than trading him to the St. Louis Browns, might have been the best non-trade in club history. Veeck's 1948 club stands far above all others as the most revered, best remembered team in Tribe annals. Featuring Boudreau, Feller, Doby, Paige, KEN KELTNER, JOE GORDON, GENE BEARDEN and BOB LEMON, the Indians took the A.L. pennant in a historic one-game playoff against the Red Sox at Fenway Park, then beat the Boston Braves in six games. Veeck departed in 1949, but general manager Hank Greenberg remained and hired AL LOPEZ to replace Boudreau as manager in 1951. The Lopez-managed Indians, dominated by pitchers Lemon, EARLY WYNN, and MIKE GARCIA, never finished lower than second and won a league record 111 games in 1954. Throughout his regime, Lopez' Indians were thwarted by New York teams, finishing behind the Yankees five times and losing the '54 World Series in four games to the Giants. The slugging Cleveland offense, led by Doby, AL ROSEN and LUKE EASTER, actually out-powered the Bronx Bombers in the fifties, leading the league in homers six times.

Standing in line to succeed the aging Lopez-Greenberg Indians were such young talents as 1955 Rookie of the Year HERB SCORE, ROCKY COLAVITO, ROGER MARIS, JIM PERRY and JIM GRANT. Tragedy struck again in 1957 when Score was felled by a line drive off the bat of New York's Gil McDougald. Score returned to pitch, but never to the brilliance he achieved earlier. Another ownership change preceeded the departure of Lopez and Greenberg. Hank had determined the Indians should move to another city, but new club president William R. Daley and the club board of directors chose to stay put and change general managers. Replacing Greenberg was Frank Lane, notoriously known as "Trader Lane". Lane made 60 separate deals from December 2, 1957 to December 15, 1959. In the process, the Indians returned to contention in 1959, finishing a close second to the Chicago White Sox. The 1959 Indians led the A.L. in HRs, runs scored, batting average and slugging percentage. Tribe home attendance was up 125%, trailing only the Yankees, Dodgers and Braves.

Frank Lane dealt Tribe fans a crushing blow by trading Colavito to the Tigers for Harvey Kuenn on April 17, 1960. Rocky had been co-HR champ in 1959, blasted 129 homers over four seasons, including four in a game at Baltimore on June 20, 1959, and had become the most charismatic Tribesman of his era.

Like Cleveland itself, the Indians suffered economically, underwent seven ownership changes in 25 years (as many as occured in the first 60 years of the franchise), and endured constant rumors that the club would relocate to Seattle, Atlanta, New Orleans or elsewhere.

Teams of 1962, 1965 and 1968 were perhaps a player away from pennant contention. The '68 team, led by LUIS TIANT, is the only Tribe team since 1959 to finish higher than fourth, but teams of 1962 and 1965 battled for first place beyond mid-season before fading. Colavito's return in 1965 was a high point of the sixties, but the cost included future stars Tommy John and Tommie Agee. Tiant's brilliant '68 season (21 wins, league-leading 1.60 ERA) was followed by arm trouble and departure. "Sudden" SAM McDOWELL was a four-time strikeout leader during the 1960s. His 1965 season included a league-low 2.18 ERA, league-high 325 strikeouts (most ever by a Tribe lefty) and two consecutive one-hitters. McDowell won 20 games in 1970. Colorful KEN HARRELSON was acquired amid much fanfare in 1969, broke his leg in 1970 and retired. RAY FOSSE, seemingly destined for stardom, was injured by Pete Rose in a memorable home plate collision to end the 1970 All-Star Game. Lack of stability and finances in this period placed an emphasis on immediate benefits rather than long-range plans. Accordingly, there have been great individual accomplishments but little team glory.

GAYLORD PERRY, acquired with Frank Duffy for McDowell in 1972, brought the Cy Young Award to Cleveland with a brilliant 24-win season. He was even better during the first half of 1974, fashioning a 15-game winning streak. The '74 Indians, managed by KEN ASPROMONTE and featuring Perry, BUDDY BELL, GEORGE HENDRICK and CHARLIE SPIKES, were just a half game from first place on July 4 and in second as late as August 22 before falling to fourth. Short-term actions, like the trading of 1972 Rookie of the Year CHRIS CHAMBLISS and third baseman GRAIG NETTLES to the Yankees, came at long-term expense.

On October 3, 1974, FRANK ROBINSON replaced Aspromonte, becoming the first black manager in ML history, giving Cleveland another giant first in baseball's integration efforts. His first at-bat, an opening day homer in 1975, was voted the most memorable moment in club history by the fans! His 1976 Indians were the first with a winning record since 1968, but a slow start in 1977 led to Robinson's departure.

In the steal of the decade, general manager Phil Seghi obtained ANDRE THORNTON from Montreal for Jackie Brown. Thornton battled injuries and personal tragedy to become one of Cleveland's all-time leading home run hitters and most respected players.

Cleveland's third Rookie of the Year, JOE CHARBONEAU dominated 1980. Joe was the subject of a book, song and fan support unseen since Colavito. But back trouble cut Joe's promising career short.

LEN BARKER's perfect game on May 15, 1981, Thornton's 1982 comeback after missing all of 1980 and most of 1981, and JOE CARTER's 30-30 season in 1987 are just some of the memorable feats played out on the shores of Lake Erie. The 1986 team featured heavy-hitting from Carter Thornton, CORY SNYDER, BROOK JACOBY, BRETT BUTLER and JULIO FRANCO, had surprised fans with a fourth place finish and a league-leading offense.

In 1987, under the new ownership of RICHARD E. and DAVID H. JACOBS, and club President HANK PETERS, emphasis was placed on player development and scouting. When the Indians "Blueprint for Success" was first put into action, the Indians farm system was one of the weakest in baseball. After Peters retirement, JOHN HART was given command of the club and, along with DAN O'DOWD, brought the Indians farm system to the forefront. In 1992, the Indians were honored as baseball's Organization of the Year by Baseball America and there was no denying that the Tribe was a team on the rise.

In 1993, the Indians went to spring training poised to turn the corner and become a contender, however, at the end of training camp the team suffered through one of the biggest tragedies in the history of the game as two of their pitchers STEVE OLIN and TIM CREWS were killed in a boating accident and BOB OJEDA nearly lost his life. The team showed its strength and regrouped to have a stellar second half of the season.

All eyes turned to 1994 as the Indians moved into their new state-of-the-art ballpark, Jacobs Field. The Indians had a solid nucleus of players in ALBERT BELLE, KENNY LOFTON, CARLOS BAERGA, SANDY ALOMAR, CHARLES NAGY and JIM THOME. Prior to the '94 season the Indians signed veteran free agents EDDIE MURRAY and DENNIS MARTINEZ. This resulted in Manager MIKE HARGROVE piloting a club into contention for the first time in nearly four decades. The Indians were in position for a playoff birth in the newly formed AL Central division before a players' strike cancelled the season.

The Indians plan was not designed for a one year run but to provide the fans a contending team until the end of the decade. Professional baseball in Cleveland is alive and well as it heads into its third century anchored by committed ownership and a talented management team.

LOUIS SOCKALEXIS:
THE CLEVELAND INDIAN
(1871-1913)

Louis F. Sockalexis was a Penobscot Indian from Old Towne, Maine and the first American Indian to play major league baseball.

Sockalexis, who played collegiate baseball at Holy Cross College in Worchester, MA., joined the Cleveland club in 1897. In his first season with the team he hit at a .338 clip.

His career was short-lived as Louis played for only three seasons. Over his brief three year career he compiled a .313 batting average. In his 2nd season with Cleveland Louis saw his average dip to .224. His final summer in the majors was 1899 when he appeared in only seven games and batted .273.

The team employed several nicknames throughout the years prior to the arrival of Sockalexis and after his departure. The one that was used for the longest period of time was "Naps", in honor of the team's player-manager Napolean Lajoie.

After Lajoie was released in 1914 a Cleveland newspaper held a contest to rename the team. The winning entry in the contest was "Indians". The fan that sent it in explained that it would be a testament to the game's first American Indian. The memory of Louis F. Sockalexis was not forgotten then, and today, 78 years later, he is still remembered.

1902 – BRONCHOS (The 1902 Cleveland players didn't like the name Bluebirds and were looking for a more forceful nickname before voting for Bronchos).

1915 – INDIANS (A local daily newspaper ran a contest and the name Indian was suggested by a fan who said he was doing it in honor of an Indians player named Luis Francis Sockalexis.

CLEVELAND
ALL-STAR REVIEW
TOP THREE ALL-STAR CROWDS

1 — 72,086 at Cleveland Stadium on August 9, 1981

2 — 69,831 at Cleveland Stadium on July 8, 1935

3 — 68,751 at Cleveland Stadium on July 13, 1954

GAME ONE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM — July 8, 1935
American League 4, National League 1

A crowd of 69,831 — the largest throng to see an All-Star Game (until 1981 in Cleveland) — packed the lakefront Stadium for just the third mid-summer classic in history. The partial American League crowd was thrilled to a 4-1 junior circuit victory, the A.L.'s third straight All-Star win.
Jimmy Foxx belted a two-run homer in the first inning and the American Leaguers coasted to the win as Lefty Gomez and Mel Harder baffled the National League hitters.

GAME TWO AT CLEVELAND STADIUM — July 13, 1954
American League 11, National League 9

In a spectacular slugfest that set All-Star marks for runs and hits by the two clubs, the American League edged the National 11-9. The slugfest produced six home runs, including four by the A.L. The Indians' Al Rosen clubbed a pair of homers while he and his Cleveland teammates Bobby Avila and Larry Doby combined for eight RBI.
The 1954 contest was a wild seesaw contest which saw the lead change six times before the A.L. pulled out the 11-9 win with a three run rally in the eighth. Ironically, it was Nellie Fox's broken bat single over second base with the bases loaded in the eighth that provided the margin of victory.

GAME THREE AT CLEVELAND STADIUM — July 9, 1963
National League 5, American League 3

After four years as a double feature, the All-Star Game went to a single performance and saw the National League utilize its speed and gain its first Cleveland Stadium win, 5-3.
Willie Mays was easily the game's outstanding performer, going 1-for-3 with two RBI, two runs scored, two stolen bases, a walk and the game's most scintillating catch. 44,160 fans saw the action.

GAME FOUR AT CLEVELAND STADIUM — August 9, 1981
National League 5, American League 4

An all-time record All-Star Game crowd of 72,086 welcomed back baseball from the dreaded players strike and saw the National League edge the American 5-4. The 72,086 fans gave Cleveland the top three crowds in All-Star history.
Gary Carter clubbed two home runs, including a seventh inning solo shot to put the National Leaguers ahead to stay. Cleveland's Lenny Barker faced just six batters in his two innings of work, striking out one.

INDIANS RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

BOB FELLER — #19

Arguably the greatest right-handed pitcher of all-time, the Van Meter, Iowa native joined the Indians as an 18 year-old in 1936 and played 18 years with the Tribe. Feller compiled a lifetime record of 266-162 with a 3.25 ERA. He is the Indians all-time leader in shutouts (46), innings pitched (3,827), wins and strikeouts (2,581).

Bob appeared in 8 All-Star games, more than any player in the history of the Indians and started the 1941 and 1946 games.

Feller won twenty or more games six times and won a career-best 27 games in 1940. Bob also led the league in strikeouts seven times and in 1946 he won 26 games and struck out 348 in 371.1 innings and the 348 strikeouts is still a single-season team record.

"Rapid Robert" tossed three no-hitters in his career. Feller's first no-hitter came on April 16, 1940 in a 1-0 victory at Chicago in 30-degree weather and it remains as baseball's only opening day, no-hitter

Bob lost three years of his career serving in the military (1942-44) and saw limited action in 1945.

Bob Feller's #19 was retired by the Indians in 1957, the first number retired by the club and he was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1962.

LARRY DOBY— #14

On July 3, 1947, Indians owner Bill Veeck signed Larry Doby to a major league contract. Two days later he appeared in his first American League game, becoming the first black player in the league. This trailblazer enjoyed a magnificent 13-year big league career, ten of those seasons were spent in Cleveland with the Tribe.

Larry helped lead the Indians to their last World Championship in 1948. In the '48 W.S. he batted a team-leading .318 and his 400-foot homer off the Braves Johnny Sain won Game 4 for the Indians. In 1950 he was recognized as the game's best centerfielder by The Sporting News. He led the AL in home runs (32) and RBI (126) in 1954 and Larry was a six-time All-Star spanning 1949-1954.

Prior to joining the Indians, Doby was a standout for the Cleveland Buckeyes in the Negro Leagues. He helped them to the 1945 negro World Series Championship and they captured American League champion honors in '47.

Larry finished his outstanding major league career following the 1959 season. In his career he clubbed 253 home runs, collected 969 RBI and owned a .283 (1515-5348) batting average.

Larry Doby's #14 was retired by the Indians on July 3, 1994, exactly 47 years after he shattered the race barrier in the American League.

LEAGUE PARK — Constructed in 1891 at Lexington Avenue and East 66th Street as the home field of Cleveland's professional baseball team. A capacity crowd of 9,000 jammed into the new park on opening day, May 1, 1891, to watch Cy Young beat Cincinnati 12-3. The wooden park was dismantled, following the 1909 season and replaced by a steel and concrete structure which was still known as League Park.

DUNN FIELD — League Park was rechristened Dunn Field in 1920 in honor of owner James Dunn. The name reverted to League Park following Dunn's death in 1927.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average -- Divide the total number of hits collected by a player by the total number of at bats, Example: Player A is 12-for-40 or .300.

Slugging Percentage -- Divide the number of total bases by the total number of at bats. Example: Player A's 12 hits include six singles (6), one double (2), two triples (6) and three home runs (12) for 26 total bases in 40 at bats and a .650 slugging percentage.

Earned Run Average -- The total number of earned runs allowed by a pitcher is divided by the total number of innings pitched and then multiplied by nine for his per-game average. Example: Pitcher B has allowed 12 earned runs in 45 innings of work for a 2.40 ERA.

Fielding Average -- The sum of putouts and assists is divided by the sum of putouts, assists and errors. Example: Player C has made 16 putouts and 24 assists and two errors. That's 40 putouts and assists divided by 42 chances for a fielding average of .952.

Won-Lost Percentage -- Divide the number of victories by the total number of games played. Example: 22 wins and 18 losses produce a winning percentage of .550.

INDIANS BROADCAST HISTORY

The early days of baseball play-by-play broadcasting in Cleveland were highlighted by change. Broadcasting legend Tom Manning, known for his field announcing at League Park, was heard over radio station WTAM from 1929-31 covering most home games. Ellis Vander Pyl started the 1932 season on WHK, but was quickly replaced by another broadcasting legend, former Tribe player Jack Graney. For the next decade, when Tribe baseball was on the air, Graney was at the mike. His noteworthy partners included Gil Gibbons, Pinky Hunter and Lou Henry. In 1945, no Cleveland baseball broadcasts were heard because of radio network committments. Permanent radio play-by-play of Indians games was established in 1946 when Bill Veeck purchased the team. Before the sale, no games were broadcast in 1946. Soon after the Veeck purchase four stations carried the Tribe game of June 28, 1946 (Graney and Bob Neal on WGAR, Earl Harper on WJW, Don Campbell on WHK, and Manning on WTAM).

TRIBE RADIO

Former Cleveland Indians pitching star HERB SCORE is beginning his 32nd season broadcasting Indians baseball in 1995.

The lefthander will team up with TOM HAMILTON to provide commentary for all 162 regular season games and 23 spring training contests on WKNR RADIO, 1220 on the AM dial. WKNR, Cleveland's all-sports station, is in its fourth year as the radio home of the Indians.

Score began his broadcasting career in 1964 as a color commentator on Indians TV telecasts. Herb took over as the radio play-by-play man in 1968. His legendary fastball helped him gain American League Rookie of the Year honors in 1955, becoming the first of four Tribesmen to do so to date. Herb posted a 16-10 record and a 2.85 ERA in '55, while setting the record for strikeouts in a season by a rookie pitcher with 245, a mark which stood until 1984 when it was broken by the Mets Dwight Gooden. The number still represents the A.L. Rookie mark. Score followed up those impressive numbers with a fine 20-9 mark with a 2.53 ERA in 1956. He also struck out 263 in just 249.1 innings of work. Herb was selected to the American League All-Star team in both '55 and '56.

Score concluded his eight-year big league career with a 55-46 mark and a fine 3.36 ERA. He struck out 837 in 858.1 innings pitched.

Herb and his wife Nancy have four children: Judith, the late Susan, Mary Kay, David and five grandchildren: Kaily Ann, Brian Jude, Tyler, Kevin, Daniella and Emily. The Scores reside in Rocky River.

HAMILTON enters his sixth season as a Tribe broadcaster. He came to the Indians after spending three seasons as a broadcaster for the AAA Columbus Clippers, the top farm club of the New York Yankees.

Previously, Tom worked in Milwaukee, Appleton, Watertown and Shell Lake, Wis.

Some of Tom's broadcasting credits include the University of Wisconsin football games, University of Colorado basketball games, Appleton Foxes minor league baseball games and work for ABC Radio.

During the off-season, Tom is the television play-by-play voice for the Ohio State Buckeyes and Big 10 basketball.

Hamilton is a native of Waterloo, Wisconsin. He resides in Avon Lake, OH, with his wife Wendy, son, Nicholas, and daughter Kelsey.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE: A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet once a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent ... Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player. Approximate date of draft meetings: Summer (early June).

(1) Regular Phase: Clubs choose in inverse order of Major League standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed his junior year or become 21 years of age ... each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA and AA rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for the "A" level ... Minor League clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e., 4- 1/2 or 5 innings) (Rule 4.10).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs on the same ground ... If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 4.12 ...

Any LEGAL game called due to weather with the score TIED is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

TRADING REGULATIONS:

SUBSTANTIVE

— The trading "deadline" is now July 31, waivers are required for any inter- or intra- Major League assignment during the period beginning August 1 and ending at 5 p.m. ET the day after the end of the season. During the other ten months of the year, no waivers are needed.

— It will be easier to compute which players need waivers before they may be optioned: if three years (less one month for each previously spent on option) have elapsed since the player actually reported to the major leagues for the first time, waivers are required. The date of the actual physical reporting will be used as a benchmark instead of the date the player was placed first on the 40-man roster.

—The procedure for assignment waiver requirements are as follows:

Club From/To	31st day of Season to 7/31	8/1 to 8/31	9/1 to Last day of Season	End of Season to 30th day of Season
ML to ML	NONE	ML	ML	NONE
ML to NA (opt)	ML	ML	ML	ML
ML to NA	OR	OR	SPL	SPL

There are four different types of waiver requests:

-- Major League Waivers
-- Special Waivers (irrevocable)
-- Outright Waivers (irrevocable)
-- Unconditional Release Waivers

Outright Waivers (OR) are ML waivers and expire at the end of the waiver period in which they were secured MLR 10 (f).

The club must tender a special waiver request specifying that waivers are requested for the purpose of outright assignment to the National Association. The claiming period, as with other waivers, is three business days, and an assignment pursuant to special waivers must be completed by 2 p.m. ET the seventh day after waivers are secure.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, (2) he is not the winning pitcher, and (3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or (b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck (i.e., the potential tying run is either on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or (c) he pitched effectively in the last three innings.

PLAYER LIMITS: 25 players from opening day through August 31 ... 40 players from September 1 through end of season ... Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE:

— Is credited for each day the player appears on an active roster or major league disabled list or suspended list.

— In the case of a player called up from the minor leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.

— In the case of a major league player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.

— In the case of a major league player sent down to the minor leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.

— In the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date waivers are requested.
— In the case of a player designated for release or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation, through the date of the actual assignment or the request for unconditional release waivers.
— For a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as of the earliest scheduled opener, without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.
— Is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year," though the season is actually 182 days long.
— Is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totalling 20 days or more during a single season.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

DISABLED LISTS:

Supplemental (15-day) -- NO LIMIT

Emergency (60-day) The emergency DL can only be used if the club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

-- Maximum: no limit on the number of players. (Players carried on this list do not count against 40-man under control limit. If placed or transferred here after 8/1, player must remain through the end of post season.) Day one is day following players last game appearance.

-- Reinstatement may be made after the beginning Day 16 or 61 respectively; after minimum period has expired player may be reinstated at any time (except in certain "Emergency" cases — above).

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE: All night games must be called at 1 a.m., local time. However, if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m., it can be completed. Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season, in each of the two parks of two contesting teams.

BATTING-PITCHING QUALIFICATIONS: To qualify for the American League batting championship, a player must have 502 or more plate appearances (this is equivalent to at least 3.1 for each of the 162 scheduled games). Pitchers must work 162 or more innings to qualify for the earned run average title.

PINCH HITTER RULE: A player shall be considered a pinch hitter if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up). A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate, he is a designated hitter only.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE: A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included in the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game. The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order, but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or a pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game, may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

DEFINITION OF A NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 6:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed by rain, or for any reason, it will be considered a day game; if a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 pm, it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be included in doubleheader statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same date with separate admissions, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

CONSECUTIVE GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

HISTORIC TIME FOR A CITY AND ITS TEAM

Historians are certain to identify the year 1994 as a significant time in the renaissance of the city of Cleveland.

And it is the Gateway Sports and Entertainment Complex—a baseball-only ballpark and a multi-purpose arena located in downtown Cleveland--that will be remembered as the crowning jewel of the city's ever-changing urban landscape.

Symbolic of the rebirth of Cleveland and the spirit of the partnership that has sparked it, the Gateway Sports and Entertainment Complex was made possible by its own 50/50 public-private partnership—through the support and cooperative efforts of the business community, government, the Indians, our new neighbors the CAVS, sports fans and most importantly the people of Cuyahoga County.

This unique and admired public/private partnership is more than a sports complex, it is an urban development plan that is designed to spur economic growth in downtown Cleveland.

Complementing that plan is the new home of the Cleveland Indians—Jacobs Field, which was built solely for baseball with a capacity of 42,865.

The Indians organization and the Gateway Economic Development Corporation worked closely to fund, design, and build a world-class facility created expressly for baseball, specifically for Cleveland and most importantly, with the fans' "total experience" in mind.

In planning for our fans' "total experience" at Jacobs Field, we identified the features and amenities the team and our fans wanted the most, studied the best concepts from ballparks across the country, and added innovations of our own. The result is one of the finest baseball facilities in the United States, and one that is uniquely Cleveland.

Jacobs Field is an urban ballpark in the truest sense, both architecturally and aesthetically. Built within the physical boundaries of three main streets in downtown Cleveland (Ontario St. to the west, Carnegie to the south, and E. 9th St. to the east), Jacobs Field offers a fan-friendly facility featuring an intimate environment.

The exposed steel design (matching many bridges on the Northcoast) and the vertical light towers (which match the smoke stacks of the industrial zone and the many high rise office buildings) are just a few of the architect's features that blend with Cleveland's cityscape.

When you enter Jacobs Field you are at the mid-level of the ballpark, where you are treated to a panoramic view of the field, which lies 18 feet below street level.

The field is asymmetrical, has nooks and crannies for added excitement, and should be a hitter's park. The dimensions for Jacobs Field are: 325' down the left field and right field lines; 405' in dead center; 370' in the left field power alley and 375' in the right field power alley. The deepest part of the ballpark is 410' in left center. Let's take a closer look at the field dimensions as we tour the ballpark beginning at the left field foul pole, moving toward center field, and concluding at the right field foul pole.

The signature feature of the left field dimensions is the 19-foot "little green monster" that houses the out-of-town scoreboard.

Perched above the 19-foot wall is a bleacher section, similar to that of famed Wrigley Field. It seats 2,200 and is approximately 100 feet closer to home plate than the bleachers at Cleveland Stadium.

Placed majestically above the bleachers is the largest free-standing scoreboard in the United States, measuring in at 120 feet high by 220 feet wide. It features a four-color animation matrix board; a giant game-in-progress scoreboard; and a full-color Sony Jumbotron instant replay video board.

A state-of-the-art sound system accompanies the long-awaited high-tech scoreboard.

In center field where the outfield wall drops from 19 feet to 8 feet, it is 410 feet from home plate. The fence height continues at 8 feet to the right field foul pole. The Indians bullpen is located in the center field area and is one-of-a-kind with its three mound feature. The visitor's bullpen, which hugs the right field foul pole, has the three mound feature as well.

Located next to and above the home team bullpen is another signature feature of Jacobs Field---the 4-tiered Picnic Plaza. The Picnic Plaza lies in a park-like setting complete with trees, shrubs and wooden picnic tables. This is the perfect spot for company outings and special group events.

One thing everyone enjoys at the ballpark is food, and Jacobs Field features a diverse and appealing menu. Top quality, wider variety concessions are found at 26 locations throughout the park.

Another signature feature of Jacobs Field is the two-sided concession stands, placed in the center of the main concourse to provide a constant view of the playing field. All concession stands are equipped with television monitors, making your trip for refreshments more enjoyable.

Convenient picnic tables are located within the concourses to allow fans a chance to sit and enjoy their treats.

And speaking of treats, Jacobs Field salutes our children's love of baseball with a fun-filled area called KidsLand. KidsLand is the home of our mascot, Slider, and features specialty concessions and souvenirs just for kids—including peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, cookies, ice cream, and juice boxes. Oh, to be a kid at Jacobs Field!

The seats at Jacobs Field are more comfortable, with more leg room due to wider aisles. Better elevation between rows provides great sightlines.

Another unique feature at Jacobs Field is the angled seating sections. Located just beyond the dugouts in both the lower and upper decks, the seats are angled 8 to 12 degrees, offering those fans a view of the middle of the diamond. No more cricks in the neck or missed action.

Additional fan conveniences include 40 modern restrooms, 19 for men, 19 for women, and two unisex restrooms for persons with disabilities or those parents with young children of the opposite sex.

The Gateway Sports and Entertainment Complex was designed to accommodate fans and families alike, offering easy access by car, ample parking and convenient public transportation.

New directional signage, well-lighted streets, and special events security help to make your visit to Jacobs Field a safe and easy one.

More than 5,000 parking spaces are available within a 5-minute walk of the ballpark, with an additional 12,000 spaces within a 5-10 minute walk. These 17,000 spaces can accommodate more than 40,000 fans—more than enough to handle a capacity crowd.

And if there ever was a perfect marriage, it is RTA and the Gateway Sports and Entertainment Complex. The RTA Tower City rapid station, the hub of RTA, is easily accessible via a newly constructed, enclosed, underground walkway that connects the Tower City food court with Gund Arena. In addition, RTA buses have convenient drop off lanes at the complex.

The Cleveland Indians, a team long focused on history, are poised and ready to create a bright future.

That statement alone exemplifies the enthusiasm, the excitement, the renewed interest in the Cleveland Indians. The organization is ready to create a whole new image, a whole new feeling, a whole new sense of pride for area sports fans.

A totally new fan experience awaits the sports fan of Northeast Ohio and the Indians organization is excited with the prospect of presenting Major League Baseball like never before.

There is no magical formula for rebuilding a baseball team, only a long-range commitment to building a foundation that breeds success.

The Indians are confident that the winning formula---a young, talented, and exciting major league club; a solid and productive player development system; and a world-class baseball-only ballpark created expressly with the fans' "total experience" in mind— is firmly in place.

CLEVELAND INDIANS CHARITIES

CLEVELAND INDIANS CHARITIES, established in 1989, has a mission to make a positive contribution to the quality of life for Northeast Ohio youth by providing educational and recreational opportunities.

Through the generosity of the Indians corporate partners and various fund raising events that include the CIC Golf Classic, Cleveland Indians Luncheon Series and the numerous concourse booth activities at Jacobs Field (just to name a few), CIC has been able to develop a number of youth recreational and educational programs.

Most notable are the Indians Youth Baseball Programs—the Rookie League Program (3,000 kids 7-12), the Larry Doby R.B.I. Program (200 kids 13-17) and Cleveland Indians Academy, an educational program that assists "at risk" students at the culturally diverse Joseph M. Gallagher Junior High School on Cleveland's near west side.

In addition, Cleveland Indians Charities has donated monies to numerous Northeast Ohio youth organizations, including: Boys and Girls Clubs of Cleveland, Cleveland Baseball Federation, Esperanza, United Negro College Fund, Luke Easter Park and Shoes For Kids.
